RETIREMENT PLANS

- The Alaska PERS/TRS Defined Contribution Retirement (DCR) Plan is a defined contribution plan governed by section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. A portion of employee's wages and a matching employer contribution are made to this plan before tax. These contributions plus any change in value (interest, gains and losses), and minus any Plan administrative fees or other charges are payable to an employee or his or her beneficiary at a future date. The PERS/TRS DCR Plan is a participant-directed plan with investment options offered by the plan. The Alaska Retirement Management (ARM) Board selected the providers of these investment options.

Each pay period 8% of an employee's gross eligible compensation is contributed to his or her retirement account through payroll deductions before it is taxed.

The City contributes an additional 5% of an employee's gross eligible compensation to their retirement account. The total employee and employer contribution is 13% of their gross eligible salary.

Vesting refers to the percentage of the employee's account they are entitled to receive upon the occurrence of a distributable event. Employee's contributions to the Plan and any earnings they generate are always 100% vested. Employer contributions to the DCR Plan, plus any earnings they generate, are vested as follows:

1 year of service	0% vested percentage of contributions
2 years of service	25% vested percentage of contributions
3 years of service	50% vested percentage of contributions
4 years of service	75% vested percentage of contributions
5 years of service	100% vested percentage of contributions

Monies withdrawn before age 59 ½ may receive taxes and penalties.

The City provides its employees with access to 457 plans, which allow employees to defer taxable income and save for retirement. Currently, the maximum allowed deferral is $19,000.00 for those employees under 50 years old and $25,000 for employees over 50. The City does not match employee contributions to the plan.
